| Sgt. Mahoney sent discourteous texts to another officer, inappropriately reprimanded a subordinate publicly and had a negative impact on members due to his behavior. Officer LoConte violated department policy by sending discourteous texts to a supervisor. |                      |                                        |                                                     |                                                                       |

| 8/14/2025                  | 00007443                          | Decertified                                 | On August 14, 2025, the Commission revoked McCall's certification, after a hearing. The Commission found that McCall made numerous harassing, sexual comments to females, primarily ones who worked at the same police department in positions subordinate to him, that he physically touched one female co-worker in a sexually offensive manner, and that he sent numerous offensive and inappropriate social media messages to multiple females, including one juvenile. The Commission found McCall to be unfit for duty as an officer and dangerous to the public, that he has a pattern of unprofessional police conduct, and that he has repeated sustained internal affairs complaints. |                                                        |
